

Old Sodbury's
Carols & Christmas
sing-a-long extravaganza

From 3pm Sunday 22nd December

Sunday the 22nd of December

This Christmas, join us for a joint Christmas celebration, starting with carols at the church, a lantern procession down to the green, followed by a Christmas sing-a-long with a very special guest!

3pm - 3.45pm

Join us at St. John The Baptist Church (Old Sodbury) for a selection of your favourite carols.

3.45pm

Lantern procession from the church to the village green, whilst singing our last carols.

4pm - 4.30pm

Mince pies, hot chocolates and mulled wines will be served as we have a Christmas sing-a-long to welcome our very special guest and friends!

Wrap up warm and bring along lanterns, candles or torches to add some Christmas sparkle. If you are driving to join us, there will be extra parking available in the village hall car park.

The village green is next to the main road, so please keep children with you at all times.

Should there be any extreme weather conditions that means we need to amend the event, messages will be put out on the village Facebook page/group.
