Tresham Treat

Meet at 9.30am at the Riding's playing fields car park to share lifts.

This 4.5 mile circular walk begins in the little known gem of a Cotswold village, Tresham, with its beautiful view down a valley housing the Monarch's Way. The walk then descends quite steeply down into another lovely tranquil valley towards Alderley. There are fine long distance views en route; much to admire! Alderley is another pleasant Cotswold village actually on the Cotswold Way. There are a number of interesting buildings to view along with other features. The return to Tresham is along the Cotswold and Monarch's Ways. Again, on this part of the journey there are great views over several valleys. Overall, a very uplifting walk through beautiful Cotswold countryside. Bring drinks and maybe a snack for the walk. Lunch will be available afterwards at The Fleece, a very nice village pub in Hillesley.
